

	2 points	1 point	0 points
Content	The task is fully completed. At least 3 of the questions are answered appropriately.	The task is partly completed. At least 2 of the questions are answered appropriately.	The task is not completed. None or 1 of the questions is answered appropriately.
Communicative Achievement	It is easy for the reader to follow and understand the answers to the questions. The reader is completely informed of the student's answers to the questions.	It is difficult, but possible, for the reader to follow and understand the answers to the questions. The reader is partly informed of the student's answers to the questions.	It is impossible for the reader to follow and understand the answers to the questions. The reader is not informed of the student's answers to the questions.
Organisation	Complete sentences are used to answer the questions. Periods, commas and capital letters are used appropriately.	Complete sentences are partly used to answer the questions, but there may be some short answers. Periods, commas and capital letters are mostly used appropriately.	No complete sentences are used to answer the questions. Periods, commas and capital letters are only sometimes used.
Language	Simple grammatical structures used to express the following are mostly error-free: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Describe the weather;</li> <li>• Say what the student needs to wear in the winter;</li> <li>• Say what the student likes to do in the summer;</li> <li>• Say which the best season is and why.</li> </ul>	Simple grammatical structures used to express the following are partly error-free: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Describe the weather;</li> <li>• Say what the student needs to wear in the winter;</li> <li>• Say what the student likes to do in the summer;</li> <li>• Say which the best season is and why.</li> </ul>	Simple grammatical structures used to express the following are rarely error-free: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Describe the weather;</li> <li>• Say what the student needs to wear in the winter;</li> <li>• Say what the student likes to do in the summer;</li> <li>• Say which the best season is and why.</li> </ul>
Spelling	Most vocabulary words addressed in this unit are spelled correctly. Words that are misspelled do not impede meaning. If words not addressed in this unit are used, but are spelled incorrectly, the student should not be penalised.	Some vocabulary words addressed in this unit are misspelled, but this only partly impedes meaning. If words not addressed in this unit are used, but are spelled incorrectly, the student should not be penalised.	Most vocabulary words addressed in this unit are spelled incorrectly and impede meaning. If words not addressed in this unit are used, but are spelled incorrectly, the student should not be penalised.