TRACK 7– Transcript

Joey: Hey Rita. Have you read my blog lately?

Rita: Yeah. I loved that article you posted about skaters. I even showed it to my dad.

Joey: What did you do that for?

Rita: Because Dad used to be a skater when he was young.

Joey: Are you serious? Mr Morgan? A skater?

Rita: Unbelievable, isn't it? In the early 80s my dad used to ride ramps in New York and he was known as Crazy Eddie.

Joey: That's awesome! So what did he look like then?

Rita: Well, he's shown me some pictures. He used to have long hair and in the pictures he was always wearing shorts and a T-shirt.

Joey: No way! I can only imagine him in a suit and tie.

Rita: I know! But he, obviously, didn't use to wear a suit when he was fifteen. That's only because of his job.

Joey: It is just hard to imagine your dad in skater's clothes. Do you think he would talk to me about his experience as a skater?

Rita: Sure. I guess he would love to relive the good old days a bit!
