Are you not motivated enough to do exercise? Do you want to train and have fun at the same time? Do you want to feel you're in a game and not just playing it? Then you must try these exergames!

1. Active Arcade is one of the best fitness games, and the best part about it is that you don't need to have a video game controller. This game is on mobile phones so all you have to do is to make sure the screen and the camera are pointing towards you, and then you must follow the instructions. This exergame includes a collection of different mini games that will make you move your body. Sometimes, you have to jump or try to move your arms to hit specific parts. It's a really fun way to add a little bit of excitement and novelty into your training, and fitness fanatics as well as newbies will love it.

2. Ring Fit Adventure is marketed more as a game than as exercise. But you'll certainly work out while you play. In the story mode of the game, you must fight and kill a dragon. And to succeed, you must run, climb and move your legs very fast. There are also lots of mini games in which you have to exercise specific parts of your body. In order to play Ring Fit Adventure, you must have the Ring Fit device (like a pilates ring), which comes packaged with the game.
